

International Conference Centre

Introducing our new international conference centre, opening in May 2015 - an integral part of RoCRE, the Rothamsted Centre for Research and Enterprise.

Rothamsted is an international crossroads for leading AgriTech science and innovation set in over 300 hectares of rolling Hertfordshire countryside, home to over 170 years of agricultural research heritage.

A perfect location for your conference

- A tiered 300 seat auditorium for formal conferences and musical performance with state of the art audio visual and media streaming capabilities,
- A large galleried space, ideal for either poster exhibitions or an additional large auditorium seating up to 200 people,
- An internal plaza where delegates can network and re energise between sessions,
- A sunlit restaurant offering fresh produce for both a relaxed self-service lunch or for more formal dining for 150 – perfect for pre-conference dinners, awards evening or gala nights,
- The visualisation suite – a 100 seat semi-circular room optimised for group interaction,
- Six break out seminar rooms for 10 – 60 people – perfect for plenary sessions in boardroom, cabaret or theatre styles,
- A fully equipped press room with high speed broadband and media facilities.

Alongside your conference, we can offer scientific tours featuring our historical classical experiments and sample archives.

Beyond the magnificent facade of the Mansion House which greets guests on arrival, lies a 5 star hotel on the border of Hertfordshire and Bedfordshire, which is like no other in the home counties. The pillared halls and elegant lounges, individual period rooms, formal gardens and the award-winning Wernher Restaurant create a unique ambience of gracious living which is without equal in the locality. The Country Club is set within a Grade II* listed Robert Adam courtyard which previously formed the stables of the mansion house. It offers a superbly appointed Spa, an indoor pool with a view onto woodlands and relaxed dining in the Adam's Brasserie. By contrast, Warren Weir forms a world of its own. This ultimate exclusive use venue is surrounded by tumbling water, and features light and airy function rooms for business meetings, special occasions and weddings, or any event where the emphasis is on complete privacy.
